Domestic Violence is a pattern of physically, sexually, and/or emotionally abusive behaviors used to by one individual to assert power or maintain control over another in the context of an intimate or family relationship. Misdemeanor and felony domestic violence offenses include any assaults, battery, vandalism, breaking and entering, or other offenses that occurred between two individuals as part of a pattern of domestic violence, as defined above. The Code of Virginia does not have to name the offense "domestic violence" for it to be counted on this form. Similarly, sexual assault and stalking offenses should be counted, even if other names are used for these types of offenses, such as "sexual battery" or "harassment."

1. Domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking cases and charges assigned

Report on the new cases and charges assigned during the current reporting period.

Report on only the cases and charges to be prosecuted and/or managed with VDVVF support.

For the first reporting period (July 1 – September 30, 2005), all pending charges that were assigned to the DVVF supported staff at the start of the quarter should be reported as “new charges.”

2. Offense and disposition information for charges RESOLVED during this reporting period

Please use the chart on page three (3) to provide offense and disposition information for each charge that was RESOLVED during this reporting period.

Only charges prosecuted and/or managed with Virginia Domestic Violence Victim Fund grant monies should be reported.

Number of carryover charges: Report information for the domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking charges that were reported as new in a previous quarterly report that have been resolved during the current quarter.

Number of new charges: Report information for the domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking charges that were reported as new in the current quarter that have also been resolved during the current quarter.

For the first reporting period (July 1 – September 30, 2005), all pending charges that were assigned to the VDVVF supported staff at the start of the quarter should be reported as “new charges.”

3. Demographics of UNDUPLICATED victims served

Victim demographics should be reported in the quarterly report where you report of the disposition of the charges involving the victim. Provide information on Race/Ethnicity, gender, and age for each victim served. The demographic information provided should be unduplicated. Victims/survivors should only be reported once per reporting cycle (January 1 to December 31), even if there are multiple crimes committed against the victim/survivor, and even if the victim/survivor experiences subsequent crimes committed by different offenders.

When applicable to the case or when the information is known, use the categories listed under "Other Demographics" to indicate information that may pertain to victims you serve. Please note that it is NOT necessary to ask victims if they can be classified under each of the categories listed in the "Other Demographics" section.
